Brief Description of Organization:

The First American Capital Corp (FACC) is a certified Native American Community Development Financial Institution (NCDFI) and Small Business Administration Microlender. In both program capacities, the FACC provides no cost business management technical assistant and direct access to affordable loan products, ranging from $1,000 to $250,000.

Most common resources we offer that a government contractor might find beneficial:

- The FACC technical assistance programs includes staff members who are experienced and knowledgeable with assisting clients through the process of preparing various minority/disadvantaged business enterprise certification applications once it is determined that they qualify and that market opportunities exist to justify seeking certifications
- The FACC offers a variety of accessible and affordable business loan products including for working capital, equipment purchase and contract financing
